MEET THE SPEAKERS

Donald Musso • President & CEO

Don founded FinPro in 1987, establishing it as a leader in Community Banking. In 2012, he launched FinPro Capital Advisors, a subsidiary for capital market activities. With 37 years of experience, Don has founded multiple banks, invested in Community Banks, and served on various boards. He's an expert in bank value creation, strategic planning, and investment banking.

Robert Musso • COO & CTO

Robert has expertise in consulting, project management, product management, environment architecture and cybersecurity. He is leading the digital transformation of FinPro by converting legacy desktop analytical models to true SaaS-based solutions.

Scott Martorana • Executive Vice President

Scott has expertise in capital markets engagements including mergers and acquisitions, capital raising, and valuations. Scott has conducted numerous Board and Management retreats and teaches at the Stonier Graduate School of Banking.

Matt Miller • Executive Vice President

Matt manages many of the partnership, strategic planning, and asset liability engagements and is responsible for the refinement of FinPro's strategic planning model and integration of FinPro's branch profitability and asset liability models. Matt also teaches at the Graduate School of Banking Colorado as well as the Executive Development Institute.
