PA BANKERS HONORS INDUSTRY LEADER WITH DIVERSITY, EQUITY & INCLUSION AWARD

Hershey, Pa. – The Pennsylvania Bankers Association (PA Bankers) awarded the Diversity, Equity & Inclusion (DEI) Leadership Award to Vicki Fox, SVP, diversity & inclusion officer, First Commonwealth Bank, for her leadership and commitment to advancing DEI within her bank and across the banking industry.

Each year, PA Bankers' DEI Leadership Award highlights a banker who shows leadership and a commitment to advancing and celebrating DEI within their bank and across the banking industry. Nominees are required to be in a leadership role at a financial institution member of PA Bankers and have demonstrated consistent and quantifiable support for diversity, equity and inclusion efforts within their workplace, the industry and the community.

"On behalf of the association, our board of directors and the banking industry, PA Bankers congratulates Vicki and thanks her for her exceptional contributions to elevating and celebrating diversity, equity and inclusion across the banking industry," said Duncan Campbell, PA Bankers' president and CEO. "Vicki's passion for racial diversity and social justice has driven her to bridge gaps between colleagues and other industry professionals, which has absolutely had a positive impact on her institution, the industry and her community."

Vicki was honored at the association's annual DEI Conference on April 18. The conference featured industry professionals who shared best practices and lessons on structuring DEI programs after recent Supreme Court decisions; serving/supporting bank customers and employees with disabilities; talking about race and gender in today's challenging context; fostering inclusive banking leadership; and more.
