PA BANKERS' VP OF GOVERNMENT RELATIONS REISTETER TO RETIRE; KANTER PROMOTED TO VP OF ADVOCACY AND GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS

Hershey, Pa. – Daniel J. (Dan) Reisteter, vice president of government relations for the Pennsylvania Bankers Association (PA Bankers), will retire from his position, effective July 15, 2022, after serving the association for more than 38 years. Erin Loudenslager Kanter will be promoted to serve as vice president of advocacy and government affairs, effective July 1, 2022.

“Dan Reisteter has been an influential leader for the Pennsylvania banking industry over the past four decades,” said Duncan Campbell, PA Bankers’ president and CEO. “During that time, Dan has been involved in every significant legislative and regulatory issue facing the industry at the Harrisburg state capitol. On behalf of the PA Bankers board of directors, membership and staff, we thank him for his career of service. We wish Dan and his wife, Lisa, all the best in retirement.”

Kanter, currently PA Bankers’ director of advocacy and government relations, has been a key member of the association’s government relations team for the past 11 years, providing effective leadership in lobbying, advocacy and the PA Bankers Public Affairs Committee administration.

“Over the past decade, Erin Kanter has proven herself to be a valuable lobbyist for Pennsylvania’s bankers,” said Campbell. “As vice president, she will continue to advance the industry’s policy agenda through important legislative, issue and political advocacy.”
