

RETIRED BANKERS NETWORK

Did you recently retire from the banking industry but are interested in staying informed on what's happening in banking, connecting with other bankers, or engaging with the PA Bankers Association? Being part of the Retired Bankers Network is a great way to maintain an open door to the industry, sustain professional and personal contacts you built during your career, attend events at a discounted rate, and share your insight and experience with others to continue making an impact.

HOW CAN YOU STAY CONNECTED WITH PA BANKERS?

We know that retirement looks different to everyone. Whether serving on a bank's board, consulting, traveling the world or spending time with family, the Retired Bankers Network has a variety of opportunities based on your specific interests:

- Receive PA Bankers' weekly email updates
- Connect with your peers
- Attend PA Bankers' conferences and the annual PA Bankers Convention at a discounted rate
- Serve as a faculty member for PA Bankers' schools
- Assist with financial literacy events
- Participate in advocacy at the state and/or federal levels
- Contribute to the PA Bankers Public Affairs Committee (PaBPAC)

INTERESTED IN JOINING US?

The process is simple – Just share your level of interest/involvement by filling out our form and emailing it back to us. That's it.
